EVENSONG AT ST. MICHAEL'S

Our organist, Bradley, will be accompanying a service of Choral Evensong with the St. Michael's choir and Diocese of East Carolina Schola Cantorum, on tonight, April 7 at 5 pm, at St. Michael's Raleigh (1520 Canterbury Road). The service will include choral music by Howells, Mathias, McKie, and Astron, with organ voluntaries by Vierne. The event is free and open to the public.

EASTER THANK YOU FROM THE VESTRY

Please take a moment to read the blog post from the Vestry, thanking everyone who participated in the Holy Week and Easter services. What a Spirit-filled week it was!

TRANSITION GATHERING 2: WHO WE ARE NOW

Our second Transition Gathering will be today, April 7, immediately following the 10:30 service. Come and bring your gifts to this interactive gathering. As we look inside ourselves to identify our God-given gifts, we will also see how they can be expressed in community. We encourage you to spend some time filling out this worksheet before we gather. Please sign up to help clean up and provide food, by scanning the QR code.

HAITI REFORESTATION UPDATE

On Sunday, April 28, Michael Anello, Executive Director of Haiti Reforestation Partnership, will be with us to give an update on the changing situation in Haiti. He will be introduced at both services and will join us for Q&A in Corlett Hall. Nativity has supported Haiti Reforestation Partnership for over a decade. There will be light refreshments and an update on the Diocesan Communion Forest Initiative.

NATIVITY/NAACP SCHOLARSHIP

The fourth annual Nativity/NAACP Scholarship Fund, which supports black students needing financial help to enter college in the fall, launched during the Day of Giving. So far, $7,200 has been raised, and we hope to meet or surpass the average $8,000

HABITAT EPISCOBUILD

Reminder: Nativity has volunteered to provide workers and lunch on Saturday, April 13, at Kelly Meadows Drive in Knightdale. We are partnering with St. Michael's, and are hoping to have 15 volunteers from Nativity. For more information, please contact Joe Ward.

PILGRIM: THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our next adult formation class will explore the Lord's Prayer in six sessions that will examine each of the powerful lines of the prayer in a theologically rich and historically informative way, while aligned with the Episcopal ethos. The course will begin on Sunday, April 7 in the 9:30 am formation hour in Curry Hall 204. Bring your questions and drop in; materials will be available for each class.

BOOK STUDY: THE SAVVY ALLY

Join us for The Savvy Ally Zoom Book Study led by Rev. Phillip Bass on Wednesdays at 7-8:30 pm, April 10 through May 1. This resource is invaluable for LGBTQ+ allies. Learn to support and advocate effectively in a safe, inclusive world as we dive into this informative guidebook for even the most tentative allies. If you would like to participate, sign up to receive the zoom links by scanning the QR Code.

YOUTH SUNDAY: APRIL 14

On Sunday, April 14 members of our middle and high school youth groups will lead the 10:30 am celebration of Holy Eucharist in all the lay roles: including acolytes, LEMs, ushers, greeters, and even preachers! Youth and leaders from North Raleigh Presbyterian Church will be attending to support our young people and we hope to see you there, too!
