

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OUT OF OFFICE

Jeremy is on vacation through Friday, May 3. If you need anything while he is away, please reach out to Stephanie.

RESCHEDULED: WORKDAY

The Buildings and Grounds workday originally scheduled for yesterday has been rescheduled for Saturday, April 27. Please come from any time between 9 am and 2 pm. Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

ONE WAKE EVENTS

The Nativity One Wake Team made a SignUpGenius to help fulfill our action commitments for 2024. While we still encourage attendees to log on to the One Wake Events Page for descriptions and registration links for each event, this will allow team members to track attendance and plan transportation. 2024 actions support affordable housing, mental health, public transportation. You can find the SignUpGenius by scanning the QR code.

PHILLIP'S LAST SUNDAY

Our beloved Associate Rector, Phillip, is nearing the end of his time at Nativity. He will be celebrating the Eucharist on May 12, and he will be preaching on his last Sunday, May 26. Following the 10:30 service on May 26, we will have an ice cream reception — per Phillip's request! — in celebration of his time at Nativity.

CLERGY TRANSITION UPDATE

The Search Committee met on Wednesday, April 10, and is in the process of preparing interview questions and calendaring potential dates for Zoom and in-person interviews of interested priests. Please continue to inform interested candidates that our Parish Portfolio is available, and we are receiving names until April 28.

CAREGIVERS SUPPORT GROUP

The Caregivers Support Group meets on the second and fourth Sundays of the month after the 10:30 service in Curry Hall 202. We provide support and a safe place to share. There are many types of care giving, and all are welcome. For more information contact Emily Phillips or read the blog post.

TRANSITION GATHERING 3: WHO WE WANT TO BE

Are we still in transition? The answer is YES. We have looked at our history, and our gifts and passions. In our final meeting, we will look to the future; let's dig deep into who we want to be as we look into the future and think and dream about the year 2027 and beyond. Join us Sunday, May 5, immediately following the 10:30 service. Snacks to feed the body and visions to feed the soul are on the menu. Please sign up to bring snacks if you are able, by scanning the QR code.

HAITI REFORESTATION UPDATE

Next Sunday, April 28, Michael Anello, Executive Director of Haiti Reforestation Partnership, will be with us to give an update on the changing situation in Haiti. He will be introduced at both services and will join us for Q&A in Corlett Hall. Nativity has supported Haiti Reforestation Partnership for over a decade. There will be light refreshments and an update on the Diocesan Communion Forest Initiative.

BOOK STUDY: CASTE

You are invited to join our Zoom book study of Isabel Wilkerson's Caste: The Origins of our Discontents. Join us on Wednesdays, 7–8:30 pm starting May 15. Over seven weeks, we'll explore societal structures and envision pathways to justice and healing. Engage in dialogue and reflection as we look toward a future aligned with divine calls for justice. All are welcome; the book is available through major retailers. To participate, sign up to receive the Zoom links by scanning the QR code.

SACRED GROUND

The Diocese of North Carolina will offer Sacred Ground starting May 23. Explore faith and racial justice in 11 bi-weekly Zoom sessions, Thursdays, 11 am–12:30 pm. Engage with readings, films, discussion, and spiritual practices. Materials provided. Contact Jenny Beaumont at 919-600-5299 or jenny.beaumont@episdionc.org for inquiries. Register to reserve your spot by May 9, by scanning the QR code.

FORUM ON RELIGION, ETHICS, AND LAW

Are you wondering how religion, ethics, and law need to change to respond to our planetary crisis and political decline? If so, attend a free forum and conversation open to the public at Binkley Memorial Baptist Church, Chapel Hill, from 9 am to 4 pm on Saturday, April 20. For more information, contact Carl Sigel at cwsigel@aol.com

ECO-JUSTICE FORUM

Join us in Corlett Hall on May 19, following the 10:30 service for an engaging forum led by Susannah Tuttle, Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches Eco-Justice Connection Program. Explore the dynamic relationship between international eco-justice issues and local initiatives. Dive deep, ask questions, and spark discussion on urgent topics shaping our world.

RALEIGH CONVOCATION CHOIR APRIL EVENSONGS

The next Raleigh Convocation Choir (RCC) Evensong service will be on April 28 at Emmanuel, Warrenton. RCC will help Emmanuel celebrate its founding's 200th anniversary. Nativity members Mariah Tarry and Ailsa Tessier, and The Rev. Dr. Cathy Deats, are members of RCC. Services are at 5 pm. All are welcome to attend.
