Parish Life

Welcoming Our New Choir Director and Curate

We're excited to welcome two new members of our community—Christian, our new organist and choirmaster, and George, our new curate! Please join us for a joyful reception on Sunday, July 27, following the 10:30 service. We'll gather in the Narthex for cake, conversation, and a chance to extend a warm Nativity welcome.

Forty Years of Faith: A Nativity Video Series

In January 2026, Church of the Nativity celebrates its 40th anniversary. Leading up to this milestone, we'll share weekly videos from members reflecting on our history—stories of faith, hardship, transformation, and community. In this week's video, we will first feature Gail Christensen, who helped envision a new parish in North Raleigh. Future videos will highlight worship in a school, purchasing our land, and the vital role children played in forming Nativity. Watch for these stories in Glad Tidings, on our Facebook page, and our website. Have a story to share? Contact Sarah O'Connor, Gail Christensen, Beth Crow, Robert Joines, or Stephanie Sumner.

Update to the Parish Directory

Our Parish Directory was last published in October 2024 and will soon be updated. If you and your family are not in the current edition, we need to add you.

Each week we’ll explore the lives of two Celtic saints from the ancient kingdom of Northumbria: Oswald, Cuthbert, Bede, Aidan, Hilda, and Æbbe. The Anglican Reformation

The Anglican Reformation is often reduced to Henry VIII's divorce, but its roots run deeper and its impact wider. Join us Sundays, August 17–September 28, from 9:30–10:20 am in Curry Hall 204 for a six-week adult formation class exploring six key reform movements in England that helped lead to the Anglican Communion and the Episcopal Church we know and love today. From early Bible translators to the Elizabethan Settlement, and concluding with the Oxford Movement, we'll trace some of the theological and cultural forces that shaped Anglican identity. Please register here so we will have enough materials for everyone. All are welcome—no prior knowledge needed!
